his team was kind of up and down in the game.

"We led after the first quarter 12-9, but went through a cold stretch in the second going into half down 25-21," Porostovsky said. "During the third quarter, we continued our struggles and had a deficit of 11 going into the fourth quarter. We managed to get going in the fourth, closing the gap with pressure defense to allow us to pull out a hard-fought win 51-45."

Julian Perez led all scorers with 21 points against the Bearcats, while Tyren Mitchell had 11 and JJ Johnson had 8, "including a huge 3 in the fourth quarter."

Rayanne Lomboto had 6 "with 3 impressive dunks."

Porostovsky said he is pleased with the level at which his team is competing as the playoffs approach.

"I feel like we are gelling at this time, which is always the point of the season," Porostovsky said. "You like to see that. We are senior-heavy, and they understand the importance of this time of the year."

Brewer had it's bye on Friday, and Porostovsky said he and his coaching staff accomplished their major objectives for the off date.

"The bye week was great," Porostovsky said. "Our coaches got to go watch some possible playoff opponents and at practice, we got to iron out some flaws we are still having."

On the girl's side, Brewer defeated Aledo by a score of 75-46 last week to improve to 11-0 in district competition and 27-4 on the regular season.

The Lady Bears wrapped up the regular season against Azle on Tuesday night after the paper had gone to press.

Spice Up Superbowl Sunday with Mouthwatering Recipes

It’s Superbowl time and there’s only one thing to make game day a bigger win: delicious game day food!

Looking to add some kick to kick-off? Whether you’re tailgating or hosting from home, Frank’s RedHot Original Cayenne Pepper Hot Sauce, made with a premium blend of aged cayenne peppers, is a must-have ingredient.

Classic Buffalo Chicken Wings

If you’re someone who agrees that no tailgate or watch party is complete without wings, you’re in good company. According to Chef Jordan Carfagno of Frank’s RedHot, chicken wings are the brand’s most searched recipe during football season. Anyone looking to kick their wings up a notch can try this mouthwatering recipe for a classic take on wings, and it can be made in the oven at home, or in an air fryer if you’re tailgating.

Ingredients:

- 1/3 cup butter, melted
- 1/2 cup Frank’s RedHot Original Cayenne Pepper Hot Sauce
- 2 and 1/2 pounds chicken wing pieces

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 450 degrees F. Mix butter and RedHot Sauce in medium bowl; set aside.
2. Arrange wings on large foil-lined pan. Bake on lowest oven rack for 30 minutes or until crispy, turning once.
3. Toss wings in sauce mixture until well coated. Serve with blue cheese and celery, if desired.

Buffalo Chicken Dip

Chef Carfagno says dip recipes are gaining popularity this year, and this spicy creamy Buffalo chicken dip is the MVP of them all. Make it in the oven at home or plug in an instant pot or slow cooker for on-the-go prep.

Ingredients:

- 2 cups shredded cooked chicken
- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened
- 1/2 cups Frank’s RedHot Original Cayenne Pepper Hot Sauce
- 1/2 cup ranch dressing
- 1/2 cup blue cheese crumbles

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Mix all ingredients in a large bowl. Spoon into a shallow 1-quart baking dish.

2. Bake 20 minutes or until mixture is heated through; stir. Sprinkle with green onions, if desired, and serve with chips, crackers and cut up veggies.

Check out frankredhot.com for more game-day recipes and inspiration.

This football season, bring your A-game to your tailgate spread by adding the perfect blend of flavor and heat to classic fan favorites.

Medal of Honor Recipient, Staff Sergeant Macario García

A young man escaping the poverty of a foreign land, dreaming of a better life, and becoming a hero for his adopted nation may seem too fantastic for a jaded age, but it is the true story of Medal of Honor recipient Macario García, an immigrant and World War II veteran. Like many of his generation, he fought with courage on the battlefield and at home to defend the United States and its ideals to build a better nation.

He was born Jan. 2, 1920, in Villa de Castano, a tiny village in Mexico. García was one of 10 children born to destitute farm workers. In 1923, to improve their fortunes, they came to the United States, like so many other immigrants from so many other lands. They settled in the Sugarland area, just outside Houston. As soon as he was old enough, García joined his parents working in the fields. Like many other farm workers, he worked hard, but his education was sporadic.

In 1942, García enlisted in the army. America had become his home, and his home had been attacked. He was determined to serve in its defense. An infantryman, he was wounded at the Allied invasion of Normandy on D-Day in 1944. Awarded the Purple Heart, he soon returned to duty. He later earned the Bronze Star as well.

In November 1944, as American troops were beginning to push into Nazi Germany,

García and his men found themselves in a desperate battle. They were pinned down by machine gun fire, and García was wounded. He carefully crawled to a position near the machine gun nest, hurled a grenade, and shot three enemy troops to take out the gun. A second machine gun opened fire, and García again crawled over to also take it out single-handedly. The men were saved, and the army's position was secured. For his actions, he was given the Medal of Honor.

President Harry S. Truman presented him with the medal in a White House ceremony on Aug. 23, 1945. Shortly afterward, his native land of Mexico awarded him the Merito Militar, one of the highest awards in the Mexican Army, for his valor. García was honorably discharged in 1946, leaving with the rank of staff sergeant.

For many veterans returning home, it is often difficult to fathom how much they have changed because of their experiences while so little has changed for those they left behind. Such was often the case for World War II veterans. García himself would discover this much to the horrors of himself and the nation when he stepped into a restaurant in Richmond, just outside Houston, in September 1945 – not even one month after the war ended and his White House appearance.

García's face had been in newspapers all over the Houston area. His story was well-known by this point. In spite of his service, in spite of his heroism, in spite of saving the lives of his fellow soldiers on multiple occasions – putting his own life at risk to save others -- the restaurant owners refused to serve him because his skin was not the right color. Insulted, García began arguing with the owner. The owner then beat him with a baseball bat. To make matters worse, police arrested García and charged him in the incident.

García had shed blood defending his adopted country and the freedoms for which it stood. Now his blood was shed because of bigotry. Journalists across the nation condemned the treatment of the Medal of Honor recipient. Former Gov. James Allred stepped up and served as his attorney. Through his powerful defenders, García was able to win delays for a trial. In 1947, prosecutors quietly dismissed the case.

Afterward, he was able to get his American citizenship in 1947 and worked with civil rights groups to fight segregation and other unjust laws. He returned to school and earned his high school diploma in 1951.

He eventually landed a job as a counselor with the Veterans Administration. Here, he spent the rest of his career helping his fellow veterans. He remained active in his support of civil rights. He spoke to various veterans groups, schools, and civil rights groups as the years passed. On Nov. 21, 1963, he met President John F. Kennedy at a reception in Houston the day before his tragic death in Dallas.

In December 1972, García was critically injured in a car wreck. He died on Christmas Eve at the age of 52.

In the years after his passing, the Medal of Honor recipient was further honored.

In 1983, Houston's new army reserve center was named in his honor.

In 1994, a middle school was named for him in Sugarland, and Houston later named an elementary school and renamed a street after him. Honor led to a life well-lived.
